7. Safari Contract, Deposits and Payment Conditions

Your Safari is booked and reserved only when a signed Safari Contract, along with a deposit of 50 % of the daily fees for the designated length of the safari is received.

The balance of the daily fees, the trophy fees, the government V.A.T. and the fees for excluded services (i.e. : packing, dipping and shipping costs of trophies, etc.) are payable on completion of the Safari, before departure. All payments are to be made in US Dollar or Euro, unless otherwise arranged.

Only bank drafts, traveller checks and cash will be accepted at the end of the Safari. No credit cards or personal checks can or will be accepted.

8. Cancellations

If notice of cancellation of the Safari is received 6 months prior to the commencement of the Safari, the client shall receive a full refund of the deposit.

If notice of cancellation is received at least 3 months prior, the client shall receive only 50 % refund of the deposit.

If proper and timely notice of cancellation is not received at least 3 months prior to commencement of the Safari, no portion of the deposit shall be refunded.

9. Travel Arrangements

The client is responsible for all the travel arrangements from foreign countries to Windhoek, Namibia and retour.

The necessary travel documents such as Visas, etc. ... shall be arranged by the client. We are not responsible if, for any reason, the client is refused entry into any country, or if client is late in arriving. Since we incur expenses in advance for the Safari based on the total number of days booked, no refunds will be given for late arrivals or early departures.

10. Insurance

As everyone is well aware, international travel and Safaris carry a certain amount of inherent and unavoidable risk and even danger. Therefore, we cannot and do not accept liability for accidents, personal injury, illness, travel delays and damage to or any type of loss(include theft) of client's personal property such as firearms, camera equipment and luggage.

Accordingly, we require that all clients arrange for their own travel, life, medical and cancellation insurance to cover all these potential risks that could occur before, during or after their Safari. This coverage can easily be obtained through reputable and experienced international travel agents.

We maintain the insurance policies that are required under Namibian law.
